PREFACE

One of the most common human characteristics is the desire to be remembered, and we, certainly, are no exception. In the years ahead we will think of our teachers and classmates. We will remember how much homework one teacher assigned and what easy tests another gave. We will remember the friends who always seemed to make us laugh and those who were ready to help us, as well as those whom we helped, and we will hope that others think of us in the same way.

For this reason, the editorial board of the 1966 Maple Leaves has chosen "Our Time Capsule" as the theme of this yearbook. We have tried to gather the things which will represent the best and most enduring accomplishments of the Class of 1966 in order to remind us when our memories might fail.

We have included the athletic contests, the activities and the social events which filled your days. But, most of all, we have included you. You will form the bulk of any memories. The everyday events which were important only to you will be the substance of your impression of your years at Bulkeley.

We hope that this time capsule will be opened not once but many times and that each examination of it will provide some new memory of a forgotten friend, a happy moment, or a sadness which no longer causes pain. As time passes we unconsciously distort the past. We hope that in the years ahead you will open this book and recapture a true picture of the past four years.

There are many people who must receive thanks for their part in preparing this yearbook. I wish to thank the Delmar Printing Company and their local representative, Mr. Paul Nelson; the excellent photographic work which appears in these pages is ample evidence of our debt to Loring Studios. Our advisers, Miss Rita B. Antaya and Mrs. Jean Doershuck were of invaluable help, offering both advice and encouragement. I especially wish to thank those students who were not official members of the editorial board but who devoted many hours to lighten our work load. They include those who gave us their time after school to make possible the captions in the senior section, our artist, Edward Markiewicz, whose excellent work appears throughout the book, and our typists whose co-operation was most helpful. Finally, I would like to thank our principal, Mr. Frederic Bashour, for his assistance and guidance.

MEMORIAM

In the jungles of Southeast Asia a war of confusion rages. There is often doubt about the identity of the enemy and about the names of our allies. We are fighting against Communism, but what we are fighting for is sometimes vague. One thing, however, is free of even the mildest tinge of doubt. This is the courage of the Americans doing the fighting.

Our soldiers continue to fight under conditions of danger and hardship in a war which lacks only an official declaration to make it complete. The freedom which we assume to be our birthright, if we think of it at all, is costing lives every day.

These men are paying our debt; they are assuming our responsibility. They have chosen to accept their duty rather than to protest against it. In the clamor of politics and decision-making, we cannot afford to forget this. Whatever our opinion of the war and its aims, we have no other choice than to recognize the valor and sacrifice of these fighting men of America. Therefore, we, the Class of 1966, in a gesture that can be no more than a token of our debt, wish to dedicate this classbook to those men of the United States armed forces who have died in the defense of freedom in Viet Nam.

DEDICATION

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hyland

We, the Class of 1966, are proud to dedicate our classbook to Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hyland. As she is not a member of the formal teaching staff, we obtained special permission of the principal to do so. Mrs. Hyland has been a part of the school since its opening in 1927. Looking beyond the role of mere instructor, a student should find a friend with the desire and capacity to help him. Mrs. Hyland has filled this position in a measure few others can approach.

The bewildered freshman who is missing a book or the exuberant senior who wants to analyze the latest Bulkeley victory finds in Mrs. Hyland a helpful and enthusiastic listener. She is a friend to the student who finds himself in trouble, and her sympathetic counseling has been of value to many.

It is with the greatest pleasure that we, the Class of 1966, acknowledge with appreciation and respect the thirty years of unselfish service as a friend and booster which have made the name of Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hyland synonymous with the most desirable aspects of our school.

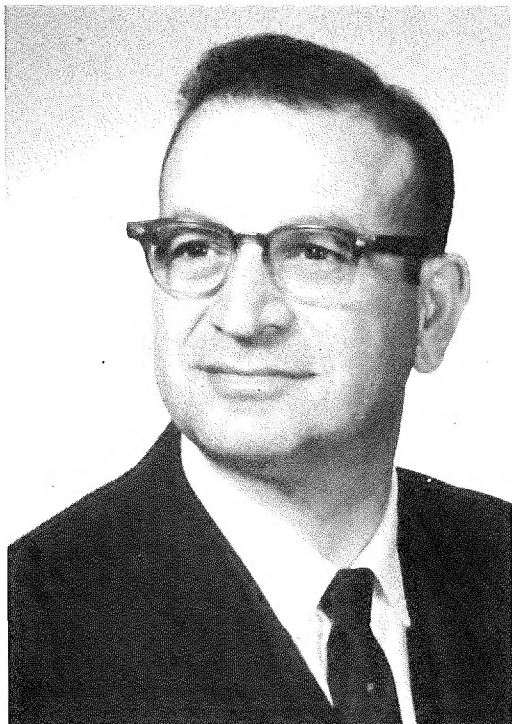

DEDICATION

Mr. Edward J. Kusek

It is with pride that we, the Class of 1966, dedicate our classbook to Mr. Edward J. Kusek. Mr. Kusek is known not only to those students to whom he teaches industrial arts but to the many others who have benefited from his generous contributions to extracurricular activities at Bulkeley. To his students he has been a friend and counselor who understood their problems and guided them accordingly.

The students producing Bulkeley's variety shows in recent years have been fortunate to have Mr. Kusek's help in preparing a stage setting which complemented the efforts of the performers. Mr. Kusek has also been active as a teacher of driver education and he is undoubtedly responsible for lengthening the safe driving life of many Bulkeley students.

Thus, we the Class of 1966, are pleased to take this opportunity to salute and to thank a man who has served both us and the school. Because he has been a friend and tireless helper, we dedicate our classbook to Mr. Edward J. Kusek.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Maturity is a continuously developing state of being that has its beginning at birth and reaches its fulfillment sometime before senility. It is a many faceted concept with variations in areas and individuals. There is no sharp line indicating its onset, its arrival or its demise; it is always present to some extent within all people in some situations. Graduation is a signpost along the way; in itself it is neither proof nor measure of progress. Age twenty-one is another signpost but it also fails to do more than indicate age. It is true that adults, whatever that term means, assume they are mature and that others are immature. We all know that this is not so. Some adults never mature; some children in some areas are mature.

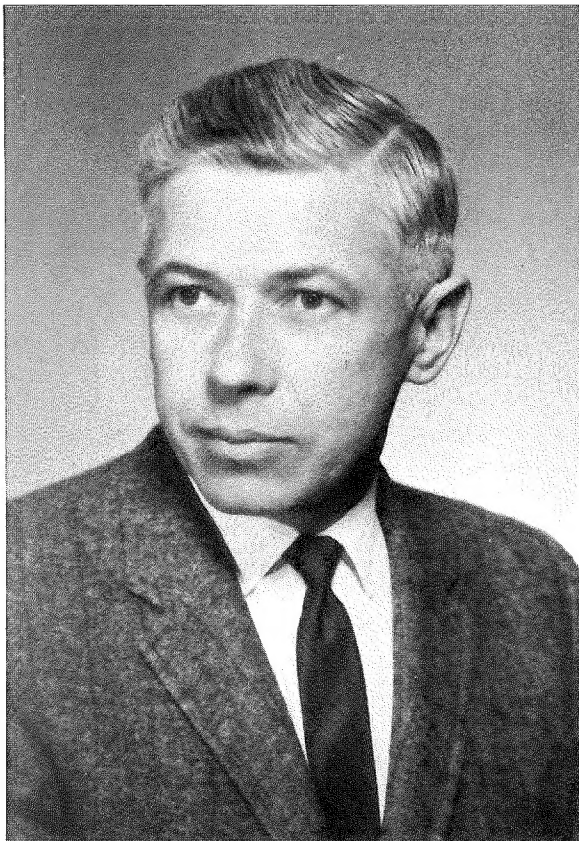

Where are you in this process of growth towards maturity? Are you planning for your future in a way that when the future for you becomes the present that you can look back with a satisfied glance? Are you taking full advantage of the opportunities available to you at this important time in your life, or are you allowing the war in Viet Nam to dictate your decisions? Are you willing to do your share as your fathers did before you to perpetuate the good life, or are you thinking of ways to "let George do it"? Are you your brother's keeper, or do you want your brother to keep you?

The problems of today are no more serious than those of the past; when these are resolved, new ones will appear. Will you have the maturity, the strength of character, the dedication to cause, to do your part and even more to aid in their resolution?

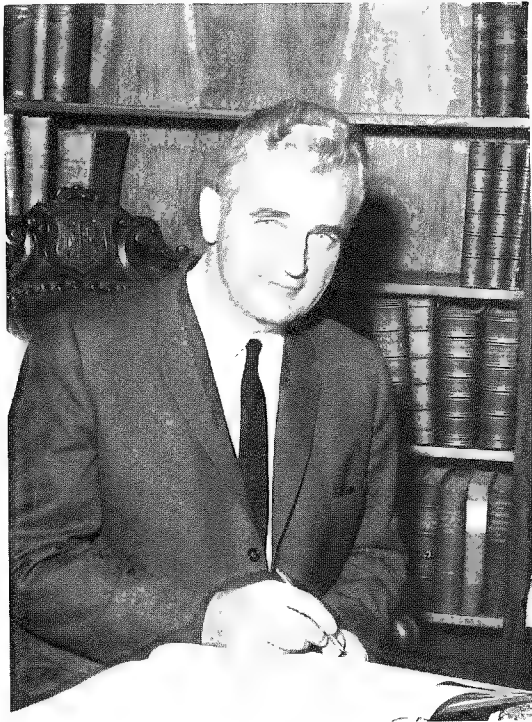

I feel confident that all members of the Class of 1966, with God's help, will meet life's challenges successfully and contribute their share to society.

FOOTBALL

The 1965-1966 football season was a successful one for Bulkeley High. Our tenacious Bulldogs, under the expert direction of Coach Felix Karsky, compiled an impressive 5-2-1 record. Co-captain Mark Formica and Vito Grieco led a predominately veteran line and backfield to one of the best seasons in Bulkeley history. Bulkeley's line rates with the best. The likes of Tom Welch, Bob Sullivan, Steve Frohock, Mike Ferris, Kevin Rivers, Vern Lancelin and George Kokinis sealed the front wall to all comers. Backfield giants like Formica, Grieco, DeMonte and Knurek, along with ends "Garph" and Angelo, consistently chalked up TD's.

Bulkeley opened its season on September 18 at the annual jamboree. Paired with East Hartford, Bulkeley proved to be too strong for Weaver and Hartford. Both offense and defense clicked against W.H.S. when Grieco intercepted a pass, setting up a TD pass from Formica to Ed Garafolo. Against H.P.-H.S. we failed to score but kept a tight line, with Hartford's only score coming on a misjudged pass. The game ended with B.H.S. and E.H.H.S. victorious, 13-8.

In the first game of the regular season, the Bulldogs thrashed Fitch of Groton, 20-6, Bulkeley, behind a stubborn front wall, held Fitch scoreless until the fourth quarter. Bulkeley scored their first tallies in the first half on a short gallop by Joe DeMonte and a pass from Formica to Lancelin. Bulkeley's last TD was the result of a pass interception by sticky-fingered Gary Angelo. The Bulldogs performance in this game revealed a definite coordination between a potent line and a speedy backfield.

The Bulldogs scored a fantastic upset over highly rated Notre Dame of West Haven. Trailing by 12-6 with less than two minutes to play, quarterback Formica completed a pinpoint pass to Angelo, who went all the way for the touchdown. Seconds later, after Mike Ferris had recovered an onside kick, Formica chucked four passes in a row, the last taken in for the TD by Ed Garafolo. This upset victory made Bulkeley one of the most feared teams in the state.

Bulkeley had to settle for a tie against a stubborn Norwich football squad. Bulkeley's only score came in the second quarter, when Angelo tallied on a fifty-two yard bomb from Formica. The second half was dominated by the staunch defenses of both teams. The game ended in an 8-8 stalemate.

A far superior Bulkeley team romped over New London, 28-8. After a pass interception in the first quarter by junior Bob Knurek, Formica threw a touchdown pass to Ed Garafolo. Then Formica took over the scoring chores himself, when, in the third quarter, he plunged six yards for the TD. Formica again fired to Garafolo for a touchdown late in the third quarter. In the final quarter, alert Gary Angelo snagged an interception and sprinted forty-three yards for the last Bulkeley tally.

In their first city series game, the Bulldogs suffered a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of Hartford, 8-6. Bulkeley played well, but the line and backfield didn't jell until the issue had already been decided. Although this was an unfortunate loss for our team, it cannot be denied that Hartford played an exceptional game.

The most impressive victory of the season came when the Bulldogs crushed the famed New Britain team by a startling score of 28-0! This Bulkeley victory halted a string of six straight New Britain wins over B.H.S.

Don't Tag Him . . . This Is Tackle

It also gave New Britain its first defeat of the season.

Starring in the triumph was powerful halfback Vito Grieco, who scored three touchdowns on plunges into the endzone. Credit must also be given to backs Joe DeMonte and Bob Knurek for displaying excellent running support. Seldom, if at all, were these runners brought down by just one tackler. Ed Garafolo, George Kokinis, Steve Frohock and Tom Welch were consistently opening the gaps in the New Britain line to give the Maroons the right of way.

Excellent defense on the part of the Bulldogs proved to be what killed New Britain. Garafolo, Welch, Frohock, Knurek, Gary Angelo. Bob Sullivan, Kevin Rivers and Vern

DeMonte To The Rescue

Hmm . . . What's Happened Here?

Lancelin were the defensive standouts who stopped the New Britain runners dead in their tracks. New Britain managed to obtain only forty-six yards rushing and only five yards passing!

It will long be remembered that the 1965-66 Bulkeley Bulldogs made dogfood out of the New Britain Canes!

Vern Lancelin blocked a punt, recovered the ball, and carried it over the goal line to give the Maroon a triumph over Weaver. The first Bulkeley TD came following a forty yard conversion from Mark Formica to end Gary Angelo. Formica vaulted over for the score, tying the game at six all. A Grieco fumble recovery preceded another TD credited to the Formica-Angelo combination. Formica ran around the end for an additional two points giving the Bulldogs a 20-12 victory.

Will Angelo Grab This One?

In the last game of the season East Hartford defeated Bulkeley by a score of 20-6. Vito Grieco scored the Bulldog's lone tally on a run through the middle. Mark Formica, who sustained a knee injury in the Weaver game, was unable to play most of the game but should be commended for his courage and willingness.

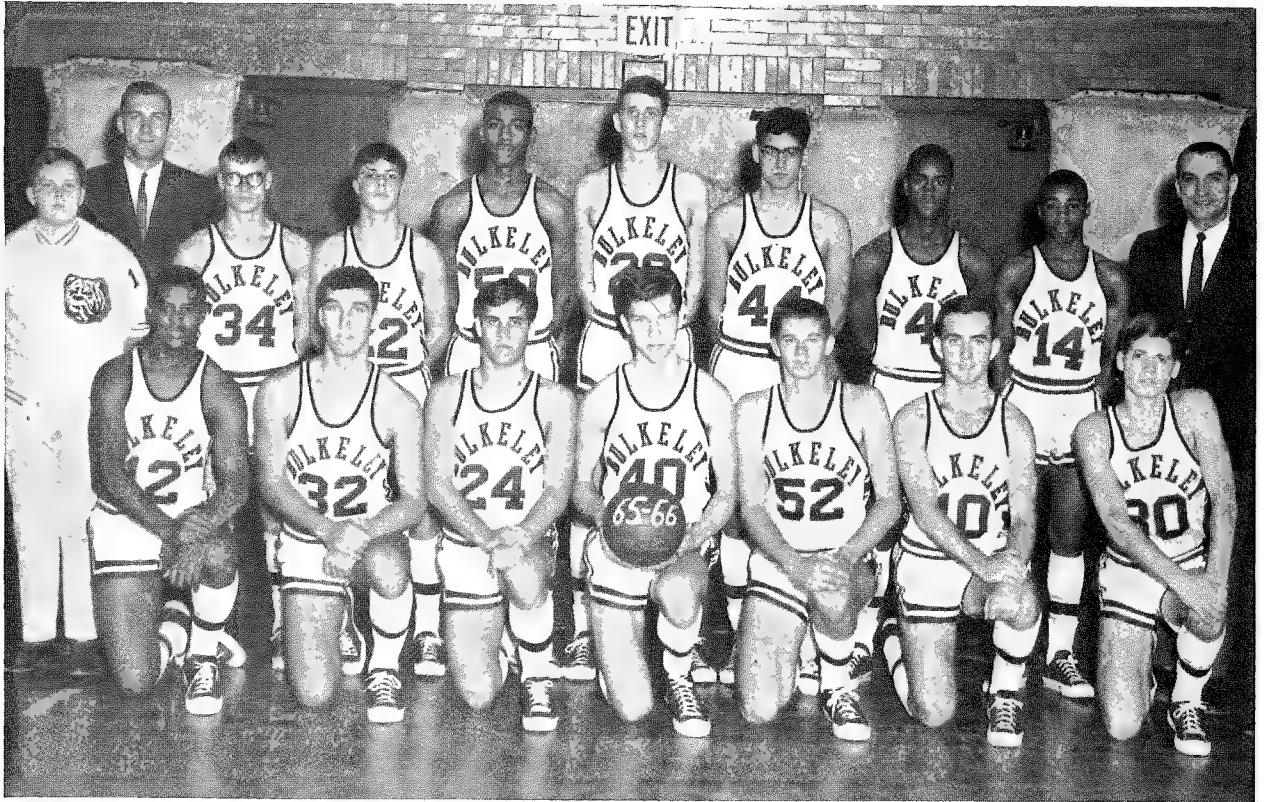

Post-season All-CDC honors went to Gary Angelo, George Kokinis, Mark Formica, Vito Grieco and Bob Sullivan.

Tom Welch received an honorable mention. Further honor was bestowed on Bob Sullivan who was an all-state choice.

BASKETBALL

The Team

The 1965-1966 Bulkeley basketball team compiled a respectable 10-8 season record under Coach Lou Bazzano and assistant John Pazdar. The season was highlighted by a 62-55 upset victory over highly rated Weaver and by the achievement of Coach Bazzano's 200th career win.

The Bulldog cagers opened the season against East Hartford with a 81-61 victory. East Hartford proved to be no match for the powerful Bulldogs, who got off to an early lead behind the superb shooting of Wayne Leghorn, Vin Kwash and Vito Grieco. They scored 20, 13 and 10 points respectively.

In the second game of the season the Maroon team met New London on the B.H.S. floor. It took consistent shooting on the part of Leghorn and Grieco to secure a Bulkeley victory of 90-81. High scorers for the Maroon were Leghorn with 29 and Grieco with 22.

Bulkeley added one more victory to its string of two with a 61-46 triumph over Norwich Free Academy. Wayne Leghorn with 21 and Vin Kwash with 16 led Bulkeley scorers.

Bristol Eastern was the first team to scar B.H.S.'s perfect record, with a seemingly easy 72-54 victory. Despite the fine shooting of Wayne Leghorn (18), Gary Angelo (13) and Vin Kwash (12) Bulkeley never managed to pull ahead.

New Britain added salt to the wounds by giving Bulkeley its first CDC loss by a score of 62-50. New Britain height was the winning factor, as N.B. controlled the boards throughout the game. Wayne Leghorn achieved scoring honors by throwing in 30 points.

Bulkeley was given its third defeat of the season by Weaver. The Bulkeley-Weaver contest was the first city series encounter of the season. A valiant effort was shown by Leghorn with 21, Gary Angelo with 12 and Vito Grieco with 11. The final score was W.H.S. 68 — B.H.S. 44.

Bulkeley defeated Fitch of Groton in a hard-fought overtime contest. The Bulldogs were handicapped because Wayne Leghorn sat out most of the game due to early foul trouble. Therefore, Bulkeley relied heavily on the sharpshooting of Vin Kwash (18 points), Vito Grieco and Gary Angelo (14 points apiece), and on the alert defensive play of Bill Grady, who stole two key passes in the last few minutes of the game. The final score — Bulkeley 69 - Fitch 66.

In the first contest with Hartford High, Bulkeley suffered a tough defeat. Although leading most of the game, the Bulldogs could not withstand a late Hartford rally. With a minute and a half to play, Hartford scored six quick points to take the game 74-68.

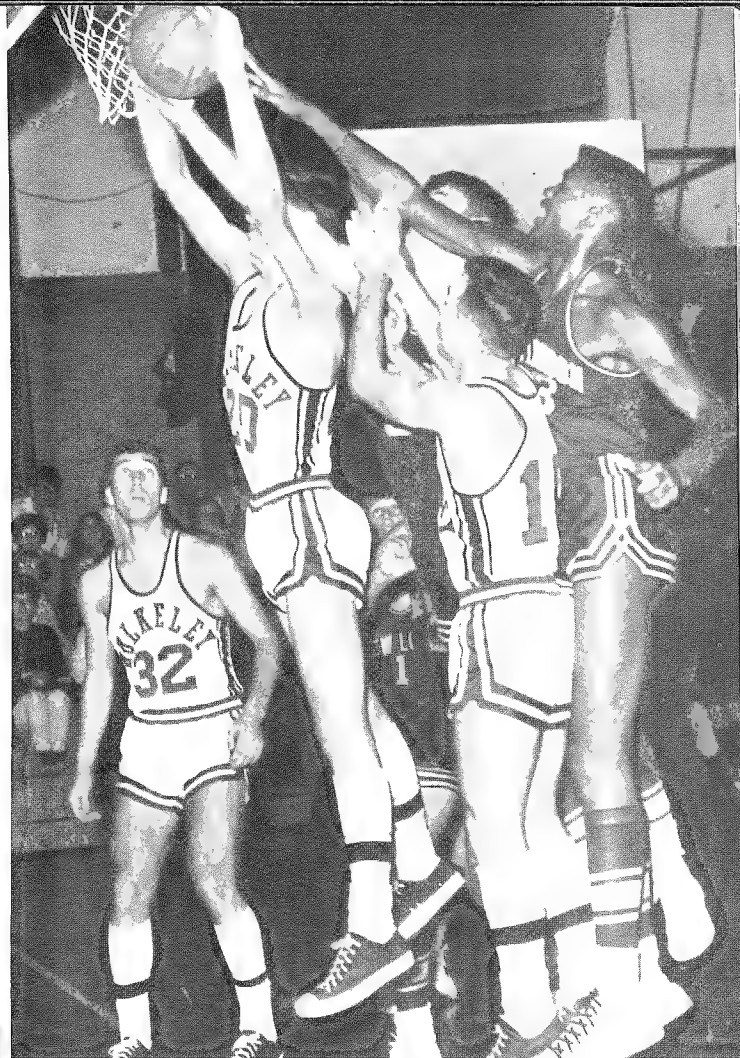

The Hartford defeat seemed to convince the squad that it had the potential to win a city series game. With this determination, the Bulldogs met Weaver a week later. Bulkeley, superb in defense, tough in a "shoot to make" offense, defeated the Beavers 62-55. Leghorn and Angelo shared scoring honors with 18 points, while Kwash contributed 14.

In a non-CDC game, a powerful Naugatuck team outscored Bulkeley 56-55, the losing basket coming within the last few seconds of the game.

An avengeful New London team defeated the Maroons in a 90-80 contest. Leghorn, hitting for 31 points in a futile effort to cut down the overwhelming Whalers' lead, was high scorer for the night.

Ziruk Fights Off A Few To Control The Boards

After these two defeats, the vengeance-seeking Bulldogs used a Norwich team as a scapegoat, thrashing them 89-64. Leghorn (26 points) again led the scoring.

Bulkeley suffered its second defeat at the hands of H.P.H.S. by a score of 68-59. In the closely-contested game the lead changed hands on a total of nine occasions. Outstanding in this game were Leghorn with 22, Brown with 15 and Kwash with 12.

Why Can't I Sit Down With The Ball?

The Bulldogs avenged a previous loss to New Britain by winning 68-62. Four Bulkeley players hit double figures — Leghorn (22), Angelo (18), Brown (13) and Kwash (11). In this hard-fought game, Angelo kept the Bulldogs in contention with his spectacular hooping in the fourth quarter.

Bulkeley's victory over Manchester marked the 200th win for Coach Lou Bazano. In this easy contest, Leghorn was high with 17 markers; Ziruk and Brown netted 12 and 11 respectively. This scoring, coupled with fine defensive play, produced a final score of 74-51.

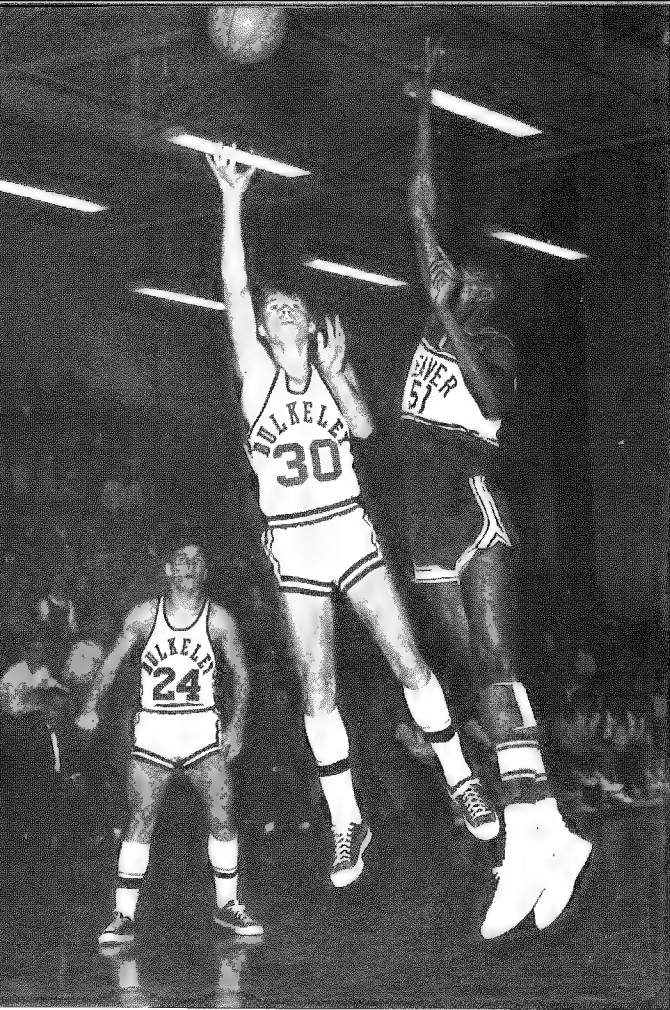

In the last home game of the season, Bulkeley was in need of a victory to secure a berth in the state tournament. Oddly, however, few of the fans who saw this game remembered its importance, for they were concerned with a Bulkeley record that Captain Wayne Leghorn, from the beginning of the game, seemed certain to break. The dramatic, record-breaking basket came early in the fourth quarter. It was Leghorn's 42nd point of the night, breaking an old record of 41 held jointly by Carmen Perrone and Wayne's brother Barry.

The final score of the game was Bulkeley 89 - Fitch 67. In addition to Leghorn's scoring (44 points for the game), Angelo scored 19, which was his highest contribution of the season.

Bulkeley closed its season with a victory over a tough E.H.H.S. squad. Tied at the half, the Bulldogs poured on the coal to win the game 70-65. Leghorn and Brown provided fine hooping exhibitions, putting in 33 and 20 points respectively. The win gave Bulkeley a string of four straight victories to end the regular season with a 10-7 record.

In tournament action, Bulkeley was defeated by Brien McMahon of Norwalk by the heart-breaking score of 72-69. The Bulldogs were kept in contention throughout the game by the superior playing of Leghorn, who hooped 32 points, and by Grieco, who played an impressive game and contributed 17 points.

Shortly before the tournament game, Maroon Captain Wayne Leghorn was elected to the All-City High School Basketball Team. Because of his outstanding defensive play, his strong rebounding and his consistently accurate shooting, Wayne well deserves the recognition the city coaches have given him.

SOCCER

This year's team made Bulkeley soccer history in winning their first game since the sport was introduced here last year. The victory, a hard-fought overtime match played at rain-soaked Cronin Field, was a 2-1 triumph over Weaver High. Scoring was done by the Pigan brothers, Steve and Dan, and the ball-handling of Gastone Colantonio and Bohdan Rudzinski was also instrumental in the game. Weaver's only score came when a Bulkeley player accidentally kicked the ball into our own goal.

Sure You'll Have A Headache

Led by the goalie work of senior co-captain John Sierota, the scoring of sophomore Steve Pigan, and the ball-handling of senior co-captain Gastone Colantonio and junior Bohdan Rudzinski, the soccer team was able to compile a 3-7 record. Although hampered by a lack of veteran players, the team showed a vast improvement over last year's squad, and throughout the season continued to better their performance. The booters were 0-5 in the first half of the season, before going on to compile a respectable 3-2 record during the rest of the schedule.

The season opened with losses to Wethersfield 6-0, Glastonbury 6-2, Newington 3-2, H.P.H.S. 5-1, and Bloomfield 3-0. Then came the victory over Weaver, followed by a 3-2 loss to Newington, a victory over Goodwin Tech 2-1, and a repeat victory over Weaver 2-1. The season ended with a 2-0 loss to H.P.H.S.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The Team

Sorry, I Haven't Got Time To Hold Hands Right Now

Bulkeley's cross-country squad posted a fine 7-4 record this season. Behind the team nucleus of seniors Eugene Montresor and Glenn Wandy, the squad racked up CDC victories against East Hartford, New London and Weaver. Non-league wins came from triumphs over Manchester, Hall, Penny and Northwest Catholic. The high point of the season came at the Greater Hartford Meet, when Glenn Wandy was proclaimed Greater Hartford champ. Bulkeley placed second in that meet, being outscored by Hartford High alone. An upset was in the making during the 2.8-mile race as the lead changed hands three times between the Bulldogs and the Owls. H.P.H.S. was finally victorious 26-29.

This year's letter winners showed the fine balance of the team. Seniors Montresor and team captain Wandy, juniors Jim Coe and George Zocco, sophomore Frank Caporaso and freshman Sal Mangifico all won their varsity letters. Individual recognition must be given to Glenn Wandy, for the all-around best performance, to Gene Montresor, for being the most improved runner and to Sal Mangifico, who won his letter as a first year runner.

Bulkeley's harriers can be given praise not only because of stellar individual performances, but because they were a well coordinated TEAM! Coach Harold Lawson and his squad can be justly proud of their aggressive and victorious season.

"You May Now Return To Your Homerooms..."

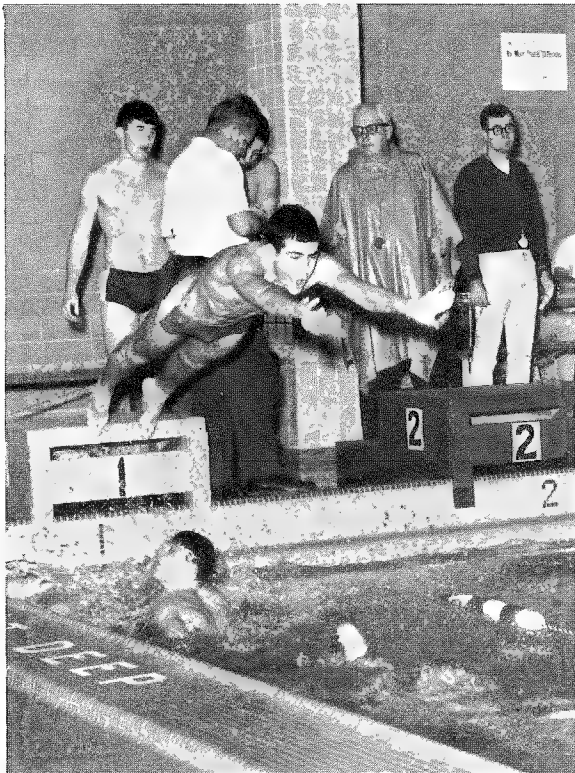

SWIMMING

The Team

Bulkeley's perennially weak swimming team was again hampered by a lack of depth and experience in compiling a record of 1-10 but managed to create one bright spot by breaking a twenty-five game losing streak. The long-awaited victory was an impressive 57-37 triumph over Woodrow Wilson High.

Look Out Below

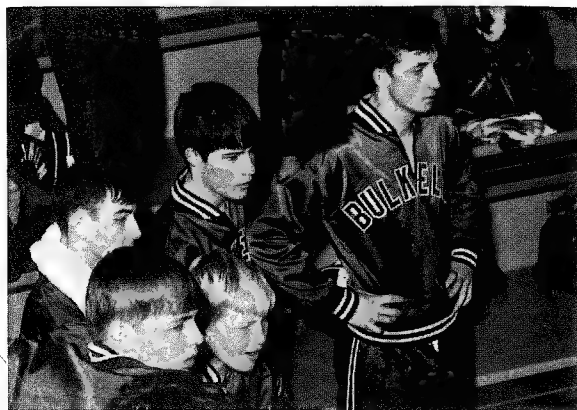

Coach James N. Brophy began his first year as swimming mentor with only fifteen boys, and he soon saw even this meager number diminish. The squad contained only two seniors, captain Don Gagne and Charlie Opalenik, who were joined late in the season by Mark Formica.

The team started poorly, losing the first eight meets, although the swimmers showed increasing evidence of improvement. At last, on February 3rd, came the meet with Woodrow Wilson. Led by Bill Kusy, who captured two first places, and by Mark Formica, Dee Way, Charlie Opalenik, Fred Morton, Ray Cerins, Don Gagne and Jack Lazorik, the Maroons fashioned their victory.

The season, however, ended in the way in which it had begun. Although losing top point-gainer Don Gagne through graduation, the predominately underclassman team should show much improvement next season.
